STRANGELY WARMED
the heart of the Wesleyan Way

Wesleyan Covenant Renewal Service

One of the unique aspects of being Methodist is the annual Wesleyan Covenant Renewal Service. For Wesley, his Covenant, his commitment to Christ was not just a religious or ritualistic thing. It was deeply personal. We read of Wesley's heart being "strangely warmed" at Aldersgate and then later set on fire at Fetter's Lane. After that experience, there was no looking back. He established the Covenant Renewal Service to be taken at the beginning of each year by the people called Methodist as a way to assess their spiritual lives and to commit themselves to the Lord all over again. It is fitting for us to re-examine our lives, ask ourselves the covenant questions and renew our commitment to Christ and the way of holiness unto the Lord. This Sunday we will renew our Covenant as followers of Christ. May our hearts be set on fire all over again!

*In His Love,
Dr. Baker*
